

I feel that telemarketers have NO right to impose on those of us who do not wish to listen to their sales pitches, et al. I have added my name and telephone number to both the Federal, and the NJDoNotCall lists. Since then, I have been living in peace! With the exception of calls coming in with no area listing. And they have stopped, within the last couple of weeks.

I sincerely hope that these telemarketers lose their case.